November in Review

- Pre-K: We worked on our next musical opposite high and low and reviewed other favorite songs and chants too.
- Kindergarten: We played instruments, learned high and low, and brought back our rhyme "Chop Chop Chippity Chop" for Thanksgiving (picture below).
- First Grade: We have continued to practice reading notes and rests through games, playing and chanting songs, and creating musical phrases.
- Second Grade We learned about the difference between rhythm and beat, listened to & discussed music, and played fun music games!
- Third Grade: We also learned about the difference between rhythm and beat and have been playing many different songs on the Boomwhackers!
- Fourth Grade: We tried out many different percussion instruments and played some of them together in a song. Next up: the Brass Family.
- Fifth Grade: After learning about the different instrument families in depth, we have started to play ukuleles together!
- Sixth Grade: We finished up with Medieval and Renaissance music and started learning about the Baroque Period.
