

Music Quote of the Month:

"Wild is the music of autumnal winds amongst the faded woods."

- William Wordsworth

September in Review:

- Pre-K: We practiced using our different voices to sing and chant new songs and rhymes together!
- Kindergarten: We got to experience all of the things we'll do in music this year: sing, chant, create, play instruments, listen to music, and dance!
- First Grade: We officially started to read music, starting with rhythms. This has been very exciting and we can't wait to keep practicing!
- Second Grade: We reviewed some of the notes we learned to read last year by composing music with pool noodles! (See picture below - R)
- Third Grade: We are reviewing our note names, to prepare us for recorders starting soon, with fun games and puzzles! (See picture below - L)
- Fourth Grade: We have started our exploration of all the different instrument families by listening to the Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra.
- Fifth Grade: We started our year-long exploration of American Music by learning all about our National Anthem, The Star Spangled Banner.
- Sixth Grade: We started our journey through Music History by learning about music of the Medieval Period - and creating musical mazes!
